Dear Mr. Hickey,

Thank you for your participation in the oversight hearing on March 27, 2007 regarding Crimes Against Americans on Cruise Ships. I appreciate the testimony that you offered to the Subcommittee as we consider how best to ensure that those who are the victims of crimes on cruise ships have the opportunity to seek justice.

During the hearing, the cruise line industry, represented by Cruise Line Industry Association, agreed to meet with victims of crimes on cruise ships to discuss enhancements that can be made to the agreement recently concluded between the cruise industry, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Coast Guard.

I hope that plans for the meeting are advancing and will look forward to learning the results of this cooperative effort at the Subcommittee's follow-up hearing in approximately 5 months.

Sincerely,

Elijah E. Cummings
